To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is a reference for Randy Weinstein. I have used Mr. Weinstein's services as a website consultant for almost 2 years now, during which time he has provided our office with excellent support in the areas of website engineering and site optimisation as well as management.

He has been attentive to our requests and made recommendations and proposed initiatives to specifically address our needs and completes this work in a timely manner. I feel his work has had a direct impact on the success of our website and the delivery of our message to the public.

I can confidently recommend Randy Weinstein as a solid and reliable supplier, and experts in his field.

Yours Faithfully,

Daniel Simons
